

Volunteer Opportunity

Radio Museum Host

Department Description:

The Southern Appalachian Radio Museum, located on the main campus of A-B Tech Community College, traces the history of radio from the early days of spark gap transmitters through the 1960's. Exhibits and artifacts include Atwater Kent, Philco, Silvertone Radios.

Volunteer Opportunity:

Volunteer act as museum hosts greeters visitors and answering questions. The museum is an excellent opportunity for volunteers who have an interest and experience in radios (Commercial and Ham Radios), history and electronics. Volunteer are encouraged to visit the museum before deciding to volunteer.

Duties:

- Greeting visitors
- Managing the guest-book
- Answering questions to visitors and school groups
- Provide additional tourism information.

Skills: The museum is a fantastic opportunity for volunteers who have an interest in and/or experience in radios (Commercial and Ham Radios), history and electronics.

Times: This free museum is open Fridays from 1-3 p.m. Closed the months of December and January.

Location: A-B Tech Main Campus- Elm Building Rm 315

For more information

Patti Cameron, Campus Volunteer Coordinator, 828-398-7761, patriciascameron@abtech.edu