

Volunteer Opportunity

Reading, Writing and Math Coach

Department Description:

The Department of Transitional Studies (DOTS) mission is to inspire and support students to engage in ongoing academic, personal, and career development. Programs included in this department include: Adult Basic Education, High School Equivalency (ABE/HSE), English Language Acquisitions (ELA), Adult Basic Education Foundation.

Volunteer Opportunity:

Volunteer(s) are needed to assist individual in our Adult Basic Skills Program with reading out load, writing (physical process) and math for the academic level 3 class (of 6 levels).

Duties:

- Work one-on-one with select students
- Work with course materials to assist student with reading and handwriting.

Skills:

Patience, knowledge and experience as a teacher or tutor in reading, writing and math skills for K-12, a sense of humor, knowing how to draw students out to showcase and build on their strengths.

Times: Once a week from 12 to 3 pm- or any part of this time period

Location: Hemlock Bldg, Room 316 and also 102 at times.

For more information

Patti Cameron, Campus Volunteer Coordinator, 828-398-7761, patriciascameron@abtech.edu