

College Transfer Pathway Arts and Sciences Division Associate of Science

Associate of Science CCP Pathway

The CCP College Transfer Pathway is a part of the Associate of Science Degree and is designed for high school juniors and seniors who wish to take courses towards a baccalaureate degree in a STEM related field. Students may earn up to 41 credit hours towards a 60 credit hour Associate of Science Degree. When the entire degree is successfully completed, it transfers to all UNC system schools and many private colleges in North Carolina to fulfill all General Education requirements, leading to Junior level status at the college or university. Save money, save time, AND earn AP credit towards your high school GPA with each course! Start now and get a jumpstart on your four-year degree! GPA or testing benchmarks are also required and listed on the website.
