Your application was selected for review in a process called Verification. In this process, we will compare the information from your FAFSA application with the information provided on this form, and with any other required documents. By law, we have the right to ask you for this information before awarding federal aid. If there are differences between your FAFSA application and the documents you provide, we will submit corrections to the federal processor. We may require additional documentation if we have reason to believe that the information contained in this or any other form submitted to the Financial Aid Office is inaccurate.
