Medical Office Administration: Medical Coding

The Medical Office Administration: Medical Coding Certificate program will prepare individuals for entry-level employment opportunities in the allied health specialty of medical coding. This is an introductory program that may, with experience and additional training, lead to national certification.

The Medical Office Administration: Medical Coding certificate is available fully online.

Career Opportunities in Medical Coding

Medical Coders work in private physician's practices, in hospitals doing both inpatient and outpatient coding, in labs, in nursing facilities, in durable medical equipment businesses, in drug companies, in insurance companies and governmental programs such as Medicare and Medicaid.

Medical Coding also forms the core of other jobs that involve compliance, regulatory, and some legal jobs.
