

Money Smart Student Workshop: Paying for Education & Training

Are you considering college, training, or another pathway for your future?
Join us for an interactive workshop designed to help you make informed financial decisions about what's next in your future!

Thursday, April 30
4 - 5 p.m.

Elm Building 114 OR Virtual -

Speaker: Megan Tweed

AVP/Banking Center Manager of Bank OZK

What you'll learn:

- The real value of education and training after high school
- Different pathways: college, certifications, apprenticeships, and more
- How to estimate the true cost of education and training programs
- Ways to pay for school, including grants, scholarships, and student aid
- How to compare school offers (beyond just price)
- Federal student loan repayment options
- What to do if you fall behind on student loan payments

Food Provided: To make sure we have enough for everyone, please RSVP by using the QR code, so we know you're coming and can plan the food order accordingly!
